Action taken report for Slow Learners and Advance Learners
Session – 2024-25 (1ˢᵗ July 2024 – 30ᵗʰ June 2025)

Introduction:

The Department for Political Science, A.P.C. Roy Govt. College, has taken various initiatives to support both slow learners and advance learners during the academic session 2024-2025. This report outlines the actions taken and their outcomes.

Slow Learners:

Identification: Slow learners were identified based on their performance in internal assessments, class tests, and semester examinations.

Remedial Classes: Special remedial classes were conducted for slow learners to provide additional support and guidance.

Personalized Attention: Faculty members provided personalized attention to slow learners, addressing their specific needs and doubts.

Study Materials: Simplified study materials and notes were provided to help slow learners grasp concepts better.

Progress Monitoring: Regular meetings were held with slow learners to monitor their progress and provide feedback.

Advance Learners:

Identification: Advance learners were identified based on their performance in internal assessments, class tests, and semester examinations.

Special Coaching: Special coaching was provided to advance learners to prepare them for competitive examinations and research opportunities.

Seminars and Workshops: Advance learners were encouraged to participate in seminars and workshops to enhance their knowledge and skills.

Mentorship: Faculty members provided mentorship to advance learners, guiding them in their academic and prforessional pursuits.

Activities Conducted:

Group Discussions: Group discussions were organized on contemporary topics in Political Science to enhance critical thinking and analytical skills.

Essay Competitions: Essay competitions were held on topics related to Political Science, encouraging students to explore and express their ideas.

Outcomes:

Slow Learners: The remedial classes and personalized attention helped slow learners improve their understanding for concepts, leading to better performance in examinations.

Advance Learners: The special coaching and research opportunities helped advance learners excel in their academic pursuits and prepare for competitive examinations.

Conclusion:

The Department for Political Science, A.P.C. Roy Govt. College, is committed to providing support to both slow learners and advance learners. The initiatives taken during the academic session 2024-2025 have yielded positive outcomes, and the department looks forward to continuing its efforts to foster academic excellence.

Action Plan for Next Session:

Review and Refine: Review the current initiatives and refine them based on feedback from students and faculty members.

New Initiatives: Introduce new initiatives, such as internships and research projects, to provide students with practical experience and exposure.

Faculty Development: Organize faculty development programs to enhance teaching skills and keep faculty members updated with contemporary issues in Political Science.
